Congratulation To All The Winners

All the decorations were done on the previous day. Profile of authors, various definitions of poems, facts on English, famous lines of poems, different type of poems, poetic devices etc were written on charts and hanged. A poet tree was also made by the students and was displayed on the noticeboard.

On 21st we started our programme around 10am by a prayer song. The programme was conducted by including many events like book familiarisation, presentation on poets, recitation. We also performed a drama on the theme of “English as a link language”. Various games like quiz, tongue twister, rhyme completion, face reveal, film-book adaptation were conducted in order to entertain the audience. Winners were given chocolates in each game.

Our principal Dr. G Valsala Ma'am reviewed our programme and students also gave their feedback. One of our friends quoted “I really liked the programme as you had included many interesting games that we all really enjoyed it”. We concluded our programme around 12.30pm after announcing the winners of triolet writing competition.
